“Turning Tides”* Group Art Exhibition

San Diego-based womens’ art consortium to show at BFree Studio Gallery in La Jolla this summer

(La Jolla, CA, July 1, 2022) BFree Studio Gallery, located at 7857 Girard Ave in La Jolla, will host local women artists of TWA (Time for Women Artists) this summer. The show, which will feature 2-D and 3-D works in a range of sizes and styles, opens Friday, August 19, opening reception on Saturday, August 20, from 5 to 8 pm.

The exhibition will present works by all 12 TWA group members, showcasing their individual visions of what “Turning Tides” means to them. As we head into a changed world, post-pandemic and with social and political shifts, these are expressions of hope during transition, of ways to move forward, of the force of the spirit and the resilience of nature. The works are in a range of media: from textiles to painting, ceramic and bronze sculpture to mixed media, and in many styles, from abstract to whimsical to realism. The group has been working and showing together for 6 years, and were recently featured at the Oceanside Museum of Art in an exhibition titled “Now.” Member artists also show individually, in galleries and museums on both coasts, and their work is held in corporate and private collections worldwide.

“Turning Tides” will offer an intimate opportunity for viewers to meet the artists at artist talks and live demonstrations, and to enjoy a peek into the creative process. This event is free and open to the public. The exhibit will show at BFree Gallery from August 19 through September 3 (the monthly La Jolla First Friday Artwalk).

BFree Studio Gallery, 7857 Girard Avenue, La Jolla, is the creative vision of Barbara Freeman, community and arts booster. Her gallery is new to the La Jolla art scene, and her focus is on supporting arts organizations and showcasing local talent.
